$1.2 million boost for HHHS budget

by Matthew Sittler

The scramble to balance the Haliburton Highlands Health Services budget will be a lot easier thanks to an announcement from the Ministry of Health.

Friday, MPP Chris Hodgson announced that $1.2 million will be added to the Haliburton Highlands Health Services operating budget as part of a province-wide investment in Ontario's hospitals. The funding marks the second of two significant infusions in the operating costs of the HHHS this year. In June, Health Minister Elizabeth Witmer announced that it was increasing permanent funding of Ontario's hospitals - the HHHS received an extra $240,189 at that time.

HHHS Executive Director Foster Loucks said the $1.2 million will be added to the base operating budget. "It's extremely good news," he said. By December 1, the increased funding should be flowing this way.

According to Loucks, the additional funds will go toward the operating plan submission the board made for the year 2000. "We were requesting money to cover items that we, as an organization, have already committed to," said Loucks.

For example, the HHHS made a commitment to the Doctor Payment Plan last February. This program guarantees an hourly stipend to emergency room physicians, committing the local health board to cover 10% or about $210,000 of the costs. "So when we look at this $1.2 million being added to the base, a lot of this is for commitments we have already made." The program ensures that the 24 hour emergency services at both Minden and Haliburton Hospitals will continue.

HHHS is also required to ensure patients visiting the emergency rooms are seen in a timely manner and that if a doctor is not immediately available, their conditions will be monitored. This triage system required additional staff. "We needed additional nursing staff to cover that function, and we built that into our submission as well."

"We have made these commitments: this money will allow us to meet them," said Loucks. Without the funding, the board was otherwise driving itself into a deficit position. "For Minden, this ensures that we will be able to maintain the arrangement we have had with our physicians for four or five years," said Loucks.

There is also a plan which has not been imple-

Heavy equipment and blasting have become a regular feature along Highway 35 in Minden as the widening of road allowance gets into full swing. Workers are seen here rearranging the rock cut just south of the Main Street entrance. The trees have been cut back along most of the section, from Highway 121 south of Minden to the Gull River bridge. The preparation work is expected to continue as long as weather permits.

Septic system inspection program could be coming

by Matthew Sittler

The Health Unit has started discussions with the Ministry of the Environment (MOE) and is preparing a budget for a program for the re-inspection of private property septic systems.

"We've got the MOE and the Ministry of Housing involved in it, so it looks as if somebody will get a program started," Monmouth Reeve Keith Tallman told the October 25 meeting of County Council. Tallman is the county's representative on the local Health Unit.

Warden Jeanne Anthon wondered if the inspections would amount to little more than a public relations effort. "We are hoping to look at the older systems on lakes," Tallman replied.

Should a program come to fruition, university graduates could be utilized to carry out the inspections, he added. Concerned about possible funding for the program, Sherborne Reeve Don Shortreed asked Tallman if the inspections would be county-wide or whether it would be implemented through the individual townships.

"There are different options," replied Tallman. "One that we've looked at is the municipalities giving x number of dollars to start a program." Shortreed replied that the Township of Sherborne has already embarked on a septic system inspection program done with the help of Boss Engineering. "It's a four-

Jack Harrison dies following tractor mishap

A Stanhope man is dead following a tragic accident October 24.

Jack Harrison, 66, was the driver of a tractor which flipped over backwards, crushing him. The tractor was dragging a log out of the bush near Concession Six of Stanhope Township when it became caught on a stump. The force caused the tractor to spin over on its back wheels.

The Minden Ambulance Services, Stanhope Fire Department and OPP responded to the call for help from others at the scene.

The man was pronounced dead at scene.

Laurie Scott chosen to represent local PCs

Laurie Scott accepted the challenge of representing Haliburton-Victoria-Brock as the Progressive Conservative candidate in the upcoming federal election.

Bill Scott would have been proud. The daughter of the late Victoria-Haliburton Progressive Conservative Member of Parliament for 28 years, Laurie Scott, has taken up the torch. Laurie Scott accepted the PC nomination, unopposed, on October 23 in Lindsay.

"The treadmill is running and we are jumping on," Scott said regarding the upcoming election and the local Progressive Conservative party's intention to wage a strong campaign for the Haliburton-Victoria-Brock seat.

"I come from a family with a long tradition of public service," Scott said. "My grandfather, Wally Scott, was one of the first conservation officers in the area and promoted the proper use of our wildlife resources."

"My grandmother and aunts taught in the rural schools of our riding," she continued. "My mother, Betty, worked tirelessly in the family business and both my parents were generous, helping those in need in difficult times. My brother Guy is presently a councillor in Galway-Cavendish-Harvey."

Scott said she "lived and worked eight election campaigns and 28 years of political life."

She said that she learned through discussions around the dinner table her father's concerns for people and the legitimacy of everyone's needs, whether or not they had supported him as a politician.

Scott explained that after finishing high school in Fenelon Falls, she attended nursing school at Loyalist College in Belleville. She now has 15 years experience as a registered nurse.

"I have worked in the health care system both in Canada and the U.S. and currently am working at Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay," she said.

With a family background in farming and the grocery business, Scott said she embraces the rural lifestyle. She serves as an associate director of the Kinmount Fair Board.

In addition to working in the family business, she has experience as a real estate sales person.

"I appreciate the opportunities and unique challenges of our larger communities, having worked for a number of years in Toronto," she said. "My many travels have exposed me to different countries and cultures. Upon my return to Canada, I am always

Federal candidates on the mark

While voters' interest is concentrated on the various municipal elections taking place across the area, the federal candidates have been moving into position for their chance to have the ear of the public.

Alliance candidate Pat Dunn was the first off the mark. Members of the party chose him as their standard bearer at a nominating meeting October 11.

The Liberals, Conservatives and NDP were somewhat slower in naming their candidates.

However, on October 22, incumbent Liberal John O'Reilly won his party's nomination for a third term as Haliburton-Victoria-Brock MP. He was unopposed.

Likewise, Laurie Scott, the daughter of former Conservative MP Bill Scott, was unopposed as she sought the nomination at a PC rally Monday evening in Lindsay.

The New Democratic Party is expected to choose former candidate Rick Denyer as its standard bearer.

mented by the HHHS, which Loucks described as 'Support Infrastructure', that will be helped by Friday's announcement. "I'm talking about a staffing which would help us develop educational programs," he said. "And having perhaps a part-time staff person who could help coordinate our human resources - we are no longer a ten-bed operation." If larger hospitals don't have that kind of expertise, Loucks said, some things may fall through the cracks.

"The balance of the money may go toward programs like that," he said. "When we submit an operating budget, we are always hopeful that we'll get it, but surprised when we do - I can tell you this is a very pleasant surprise."

True of the health sector, there are always things 'coming down the pipes', he added, citing future drugs which may become available, staffing arrangements and other areas of improvement. "It's not like there is ever a permanent fix - but this addresses our needs at this time and it addresses the commitments we have already made."

Septic inspection program

year program which is already underway - somebody had to get started on this so we did. My fear is that we are going to need the funding too, so I think it should be county-wide."

Tallman said the process has been started, but wouldn't speculate about the details. "We've certainly had some requests from lake associations about it, so we've taken the first step, but until we get something on paper..."

Stanhope Reeve Eleanor Harrison asked Tallman to keep in mind, while negotiations were underway, that even though Sherborne Township has embarked on an inspection process, it shouldn't be excluded from any possible funding. "I think that needs to be dealt with because we (Stanhope) will be on board as well."

Tallman alluded to the fact that it would probably be 4-5 years down the road before anything concrete is achieved.

Dysart Deputy Reeve Bill Davis said he was aware the funding would be available and that the initiative would meet the province's criteria. "The only concern I would have is that there would be light at the end of this tunnel," he said. "We can identify the bad septic systems on the water - quite often we've done that in the past with the Haliburton Health Unit. The unfortunate part of it is there is nothing with teeth that can force these people to clean up their systems and there has to be something in place to do that in order to do this job effectively."

Shortreed commented the "teeth" are already in place, but that it is hard to prove the direct cause of pollution. "If you have a break-out in your septic system that is directly polluting the water, it has to be fixed," he said. "But it's the older ones that should be really looked at."

Shortreed commented that septic tanks which were built prior to 1972 are not on record. Addressing Tallman, Shortreed also questioned the use of university graduates for the inspection program. "With all due respect to that, it has to be trained personnel who do this - it can't be someone who just walks in and looks at the ground," he said.

Welcome news

Editorial

It may have been a long time coming, but the additional funding for the Haliburton Highlands Health Services operating budget was truly welcome news last week.

As part of an announcement that included hospitals across the province, the Ministry of Health has committed an additional $1.2 million to support the provision of services by the local health board. While we are sure the board is appreciative, there are also many involved who have to wonder why it took so long. A number of years ago, a study carried out by the Ontario Hospital Association identified HHHS as one of the health service systems in Ontario that was underfunded. Using a formula that compared the facility with others offer similar services across the province, the study identified a 47% shortfall in funding by the province for the operation of HHHS. Despite that chronic under-funding, the board managed to keep its deficit at a reasonable rate and still meet many of the needs of area residents.

With the capital projects now completed and new services being added, both by local choice and provincial mandate, it became painfully obvious that additional funds would be needed if HHHS was to meet the expectations not only of the Ministry of Health, but of the community the board serves.

And so, while the need for this additional funding was a long-standing issue, the timing with the expansion of services in the area couldn't have been better.

The board and CEO Foster Loucks fought long and hard to bring this issue to the attention of the Ministry. As well, MPP Chris Hodgson, deserve credit for ensuring this particular need was not far from the view of the Minister. The board will still have to watch its spending carefully, but with a more secure base from which to work, it should be able to develop a program of health services which this area both needs and deserves.

The Ministry of Environment is concerned

Editor:

In response to Ed Braithwaite's letter to the editor of October 23rd, re: Moore Lake severances, I have two direct quotes from The Ministry of the Environment:

"Creating further development is creating more lots, that's what environmentally sensitive means - closed to further development."

"The OME has objected to the Moore Lake severances through an appeal granted October 4th by the Ministry of Municipal Affairs & Housing. The OME has stated it's position as strongly & as formally as possible.

There will be an OMB hearing."

As a resident of Moore Lake, I'm concerned about water quality and the stress applied to the already endangered lake trout habitat. Additional septic or run off from new development will only further deteriorate our water quality.

The following is clarification I obtained from Alida Mitton of The Ministry of the Environment.

Subject: Moore Lake Date: Wed, 25 Oct 2000 16:36:32 -0400 From: "Alida

Mitton"

<Alida.Mitton@ene.gov.on.ca> To: ironjive@sympatico.ca

Moore Lake is managed by the Ministry of Natural Resources as a viable lake trout fishery and has been classified by the Ministry of the Environment as "highly sensitive" to loss of the remaining optimal lake trout habitat as a result of additional nutrient loading.

Currently, the water quality of Moore Lake does not meet the Provincial Water Quality Objectives for dissolved oxygen in lakes supporting cold water biota. Therefore, the Ministry has classified Moore Lake as a "highly sensitive" lake trout lake and as a Policy 2 receiver (no further degradation will be permitted and all practical measures shall be undertaken to upgrade water quality.). Based on dissolved oxygen/temperature profiles, no optimal habitat is present in the deeper waters by late summer.

The Ministry of the Environment is opposed to the creation of additional lots and the resultant increase in phosphorus loading to Moore Lake. Additional development on the lake could further degrade the water quality and place the lake trout population under greater stress during late summer and early fall conditions.

I hope that is information is helpful to you. Please call me if you have any questions (1-800-267-0974 ext. 2638).

Shot in the arm provides flu protection

by Dr. Colin D'Cunha, Ontario's Chief Medical Officer of Health

Fall has arrived with cooler temperatures and shorter days, letting us know that winter is not far away. As we put away the summer clothes and dig out the sweaters and coats, I want to remind you that inclement weather is not the only thing to be protected from in the coming months.

Winter is also flu season. And the fall is the perfect time to prepare yourself by getting a flu shot, so that your body has enough time to build protection against the flu.

Free flu vaccinations are being made available in October to all people 65 and over, as well as to emergency and health care providers, volunteers, and people with chronic medical conditions.

This will be the first stage of the Ontario government's campaign to offer free flu vaccinations to everyone in the province, making it the first jurisdiction in North America to do so. The rest of the province will be able to get their flu shots after mid-November.

We all know that coming down with the flu is not on anyone's top 10 list of favorite activities. Caused by a virus, influenza - which is more commonly referred to as the flu - can give you a cough, fever, headache and muscle ache. It usually lasts for five to 10 days, although the cough and weakness can persist for up to several weeks, making a return to regular activities difficult.

But for those of you in your senior years, I want you to be aware that having the flu can also lead to more serious health problems. It can cause pneumonia and a worsening of chronic medical conditions, and, in some cases, death.

Once the flu virus has struck, it doesn't take long before you hear of a friend, family member or neighbour being laid low by its symptoms. This is because the flu spreads very easily from an infected person to others through coughing and sneezing. It also spreads by direct contact with contaminated surfaces or objects like unwashed hands, toys and eating utensils.

About the only way you can be certain of avoiding the flu, would be to find yourself a plastic bubble to live in.

A more practical alternative is to get a flu shot. It's not perfect, but the flu vaccine greatly lowers your chance of getting sick from the flu. Anyone who has had a shot can still get the flu, but they will be less sick than if they were not vaccinated. And it helps to increase your chances of avoiding complications from the flu and hospitalization.

No one likes getting a needle, and the flu shot may leave soreness where the shot was given. Some people also report a slight fever and muscle ache within one or two days. But, despite what some people believe, you cannot get the flu from the vaccine.

You should not get a flu shot if:

- you have a serious allergy to eggs or egg products,
- you have severe allergy to any component of the vaccine,
- you had a serious reaction to a previous dose of vaccine, or
- you have a history of Guillain-Barre syndrome.

If you received a flu shot last year, you know what a difference it can make. Unfortunately, the viruses that cause the flu change often, so you need to get a new shot each year.

As I mentioned earlier, now is the best time to arrange to get a flu shot through your family doctor, or community health centre, or your local health unit.

When it comes to flu shots, a lot of people think they are for someone else, be it family or friends. But, you should know that a flu shot lowers your chances of passing the flu on to others.

No matter how you look at it, the reality is that flu shots are for everyone, especially those 65 and over. Let's beat the flu together.

For further information on the flu and to find the location of a vaccination clinic in your area, please call 1-866-FLU-'N YOU (1-866-358-6968) (TTY# 1-800-387-5559), or visit the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care web site at

Gnomes to go

Let us consider for a moment the humble literary device known as the oxymoron. The dictionary defines it as "a combination of contradictory or incongruous words".

Oxymorons abound in life. 'Bittersweet' is an oxymoron. So is 'jumbo shrimp', 'pretty ugly' and 'student teacher'. Not to mention Civil Servant and Military Intelligence.

And guess what — I've got a fresh-from-the-factory, mint-condition oxymoron for you: Non violent terrorism. It's a brand new movement and at least one of the neo-radical cells that practice it is alive and thriving right here in sleepy old Canada.

I refer of course to Pie-ing — the act of seeking out politicians, wherever they might be, and interrupting their career trajectory with a strategic cream pie. Right in the mug. Let me declare my personal bias vis-à-vis this revolutionary movement right off the top: I am totally in favour of it.

I have never met and cannot imagine any political figure who would not look better with lemon meringue or Boston cream dribbling down his or her mandibles. It looked good on Jean Chretien. It would look sublime on Bill Clinton. Lucien Bouchard? Oh, s'il vous plait! Brian Mulroney? Be still, my heart.

Not every one agrees, of course. Some observers still cling to the quaint, antediluvian notion that politics is an honourable calling and its practitioners should be accorded dignity and solemn respect at all times. Indeed, an editorial writer at the doughty Montreal Gazette goes even further: "It's hard to figure why a few people still find humour in the shoving of pies in the faces of well-known people" the Gazette scribe grumped in a recent editorial. The headline over the rant read: "Throw a pie, do some time."

Do some time? Let me get this straight: Karla Homolka will soon be eligible for day passes but pie throwers should do jail time? Somebody should pie the Montreal Gazette editorial writer.

Pie-throwing isn't the only form of non-violent terrorism gaining ground in Canada. There is also gnome-snatching. The practice of stealing garden gnomes has reached such a fever pitch in the town of Huntsville that the Ontario Provincial Police have issued a warning to homeowners: lock up your gnomes. And well they might.

Last year more than 100 garden gnomes were snatched from backyards all around town. But not for long. The gnomes showed up later sprinkled all around the local Hydro plant.

Alas, we Canucks are strictly bush-league in the gnome-napping department. In France there's an organization called Le Front de Liberation des Nains de Jardin (the Liberation Front for Garden Gnomes). These guys have been abducting the backyard grotesques since 1995 in an effort, says one of their manifestos "to cleanse the countryside of bad taste".

A splinter cell goes as far as spiriting the gnomes off to famous landmarks around the world, there to take photographs of the captives. Then they send the photos back to the original owners. Go figure. Not surprisingly (this is France, after all) a reactionary group of activists has sprung calling itself The Movement for the Emancipation of Garden Gnomes. They consider the abductors to be "kidnapping criminals" committing "acts of wanton terrorism".

The French government hasn't asked me, but I know how they could solve this problem tout de suite. Just stage one giant police raid, scoop up all the members of the Liberation Front and the Emancipation Movement, put 'em on a raft in the middle of the Seine and let 'em fight it out. Cream pies at twenty paces.

Peewee A team battles to 4-4 tie vs Woodville

Minden 4, Woodville 4

The OMHA Peewee Monarchs took on the powerful Woodville team on October 21 and fans got their money's worth with this game. Woodville opened the scoring of the fast moving game just 29 seconds into the contest. The teams traded shots and hits for the rest of the opening period but no further goals were scored.

Travis Walker tied the game early in the second period on a beautifully executed two-on-one with Andrew Bull. Darrin Brown gave Minden a 2-1 lead three minutes later when he converted a feed from Mark Fisher.

But before Minden could take control of the game, Woodville scored twice late in the second period to regain the lead.

Woodville scored again early in the third period, and trailing 4-2, things looked bleak for the Monarchs. However, all that team jogging must be paying off because Minden turned on the jets late in the game. Sean Keaney narrowed the gap to one with a clutch goal from David Toye with just under three minutes left.

The Monarchs continued to fight and with just under two minutes left, Justin McKelvey dug furiously in the neutral zone, and he got the puck to Mark Fisher who, knowing the game was on the line, wound around a number of defenders and scored the tying goal.

Woodville came roaring back in the last minute and Mike Lennox preserved the tie when, lying on his stomach during a last-minute mad scramble, he batted away, baseball-style, a foot-high wrist shot destined for the open cage.

Honourable mention goes to Steve Draker, Gavin Hicks, Cody Mills and Jon Petch for their hard work and solid contributions in this very exciting game.

In other action later in the week Minden bowed to Omamee by a score of 5-4 and a few days later they defeated Bobcaygeon by a score of 16-1. David Muir made a solid goaltending debut for the Monarchs in the Bobcaygeon game that was also the debut for Atom affiliates Jordan Joanu, Sherri Walker and Matt Clements.

Covering up

GOOD EFFORT GOES UNREWARDED: Minden hockey fans were treated to some strong play by the Peewee A Monarchs when they played host to Manvers Saturday, but in spite of some hot action around the Manvers net, the home team managed to get just one shot past the visiting goaltender. Manvers played an equally strong game, overpowering Minden on the scoreboard by a 4-1 count. Mark Fisher was the lone Minden sniper.

Novice A Monarchs down Ops between losses

Newcastle 10, Minden 1

Minden's Novice A Monarchs hockey team faced some tough competition in the form of the renowned Newcastle squad. The Monarchs played host to the Newcastle team on October 14 and although the home team made some excellent plays, the Newcastle netminder stopped them in their tracks on most occasions.

Robbie Hicks notched the first goal of the game for Minden, assisted by Ryan Smith. Near the end of the first period, Newcastle scored the equalizer.

That late first-period goal set the pace for the visitors, who continued their aggressive play into the second frame. Newcastle peppered the Minden net throughout the middle period and the third, scoring 10 times, in spite of the strong efforts of Minden's defensive unit of Kaitlin Cowan, Michael Callaghan, Kelsey Pierson and Jason Chapman and the skillful goaltending of Paddy Manuge.

Two penalties were handed out to Newcastle as the visitors tried to halt the offensive unit of Minden, including Ashton Haley, Dean Hutchison and Tanner Cowan.

Even trailing 10-1 the Monarchs never gave up, showing true competitive spirit to game's end.

Minden 3, Ops 1

After a tough home opener, the Monarchs travelled to Ops the following day with great determination. The Monarchs managed to overpower a tough Ops defensive unit, with Jason Chapman storming the Ops end midway through the opening frame to score the first goal of the game. Brett Hicks assisted.

The great defensive play of Dean Hutchison and Robby Hicks resulted in a two-minute penalty to an aggressive Ops player for body checking. The Monarchs were unable to capitalize on the man-advantage situation.

Minden took control in the third period. A carefully executed pass from Michael Callaghan to Ashton Haley resulted on a shot on net. The Ops goaltender made the save, but Brett Hicks put the rebound into the net.

The excitement continued for Minden when Tanner Cowan swooped in on the Ops net, took a pass from Ryan Smith and beat the opposition goalie for the third Monarchs' goal.

Ops responded with one goal for a 3-1 final.

A great defensive game was played by Kaitlin

Cowan and Kelsey Pierson.

Sunderland 9, Minden 0

After their spirited win over Ops, the Monarchs faced another strong team from Sunderland in their third encounter of the season. In spite of a good team effort and some solid goaltending by Paddy Manuge, Sunderland skated to a 9-0 win.

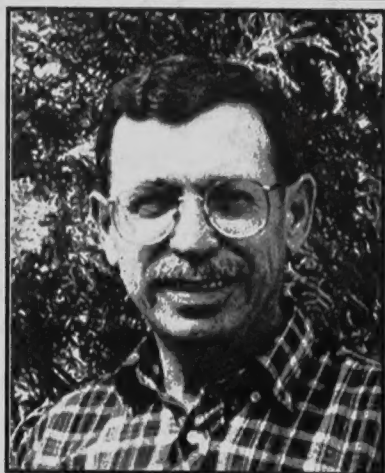

LEARNING EXPERIENCE: You can't win 'em all, as the Minden Tyak A Monarchs learned Saturday. They played host to a very strong Bobcaygeon team and when the ice crystals had settled, the visitors had scored an 18-2 victory. Greg Clements and Aaron Hillier were the Minden snipers, with Brady Kent picking up two assists and Clements notching one helper.

Curling season gets into high gear

by Sandy Cole

Things are finally underway at the club with some last minute schedule changes. The heightened interest to play Thursday nights and the lack of teams for the first schedule on Friday nights have made it necessary to make some changes. The Friday night teams will be moving to Thursday nights, filling all the sheets for both the 7 and 9 p.m. draws. For the remainder of the first schedule, the executive will be filling in the Friday nights with Fun Nights and other special events. If you are interested in participating or helping on Friday nights please let an executive member know.

There is a need for help in the lounge on Thursdays after school during the junior program. If anyone could help even once a month a schedule could be made to accomplish our goals. Thursdays is the youngest half of our juniors which is also our largest group. Helping out with the juniors offers many rewards as you watch how quickly the kids learn and improve their skills. On ice helpers are always needed as well. Please call the club at 286-3311 and leave a message if you have some time to donate for the kids.

There are two bonspiels fast approaching. The ladies' Shovel Into Winter is to be held November 18. This spiel is done by drawing names of team players on the day of the event with a lunch served between draws. Look for the registration sheet at the club. November 25 is the Mixed Charity Spiel with 100 per cent of the proceeds going to support the helicopter pad at the new Minden Hospital. Players and/or teams can sign up at the club and do not need to be members of the club. Entry fee is $100 per team and the spiel will consist of three six-end games, prizes and dinner. Sign up now and be a part of a good time for a great cause.

TRAINERS IN TRAINING: One room on the upper level of the Minden Community Centre was put to good use Saturday for a training session for hockey trainers. About 30 people from the area and well beyond turned out to take the OMHA sanctioned full-day course. Local reaction to the course was positive. The Minden-Haliburton area now has several more qualified hockey trainers.

Be wary of driving in deer country

Ask almost anyone what are the most dangerous animals on Ontario's roads. There is certain to be a variety of answers, including road raging commuters or the all too common road hog. But the fact is, during the autumn months, one of the most dangerous is the white tailed deer.

Able to leap tall fences in a single bound and entranced by headlights, white tailed deer cause hundreds of accidents every year. And, as deer populations rise, so too do the number of deer vehicle collisions that result in thousands of dollars in insurance claims, personal injuries and, in some very tragic cases, deaths.

Deer are most often active at night, and during the fall mating season, these normally shy and elusive animals are much bolder and travel much further in search of mates. It is during the fall rut that many collisions with deer are reported. Later in the fall deer are also moving greater distances as they travel to wintering areas.

Fortunately, however, there are steps motorists can take to reduce the risk of hitting a deer and reducing speed in areas posted with deer warning signs is a great start.

Drivers should also watch for the tell tale eye shine in ditches and fences lines along roadways. Lights reflected by a deer's eyes tends to be greenish in color and much higher off the ground than smaller animals such as racoons and skunks.

If a driver sees one deer he or she should exercise great caution since these animals often roam together.

Deer populations are currently at historic highs across much of Ontario. The average deer weighs between 100 and 200 pounds, but some animals exceed 250 pounds.

thankful for what we have in this country and the need to preserve and enhance it to be the best country in the world. Seeing other countries and cultures has made me a better Canadian."

Scott promised to carry on her father's "tradition of caring and legacy of service."

Laurie Scott has attended provincial and federal PC conventions and meetings and she has worked on campaigns to elect Frank Miller, Mike Harris and Chris Hodgson.

Taking a shot at Liberal MP John O'Reilly, Scott said, "I believe that the people of Haliburton-Victoria-Brock need an MP who will listen to and then respect their views, being in the House of Commons when the vote counts. The people of this riding deserve better. It is not good enough to be told that your problem does not fall under federal jurisdiction. We need someone who will listen, respect and genuinely represent this riding."

Scott said the PC party will, if elected, abolish the current firearms registration system, Bill C-68, "that punishes responsible gun owners."

Scott said the Medicare system is in trouble and needs to be adapted to our times.

"We will restore health care funding to 1993-94 levels and ensure predictable, stable long-term funding," she said. "We need to ensure the level of resources that provide the care our citizens need."

Scott emphasized that she believes in strong national government and Canadian unity. She also believes that the private sector is the primary source of economic activity and growth in Canada.

She said financial surpluses should be returned to the people.

"Government must be accountable and we must put an end to Liberal boondoggles and mismanagement," she said. "Do we really trust these people who have had so many years to get things right and still can't get it right?" she asked. "Why is it that policies that work for Ralph Klein in Alberta and Mike Harris in Ontario were dismissed out of hand by the Chretien Liberals, but are suddenly now in vogue?"

Scott agreed with John Crosbie's statement that the Liberals are "lethargic, uninspired and unmotivated, except for their desire to be in power to enjoy the perks and patronage."

"Political expediency and popularity are no substitute for principle, dedication and good planning," she said. "How did your EI (employment insurance) contributions suddenly become part of the general budget surplus?"

She added that any real budget surpluses must be spent wisely.

"We need to invest in health care, education, research and development to ensure the standard of living Canadians deserve," Scott said. "We need to return to principle, over expediency, service over excuses and a commitment to common sense and basic decency. Playing games with numbers and balancing budgets with book-keeping slight of hand is no substitute for honest tax reform."

Scott acknowledged that the election is going to be a tough battle, one that some feel the PC party can't win. She expressed her confidence in PC leader Joe Clark, saying that he is an honourable man with an exceptional record of public service.

"Some have asked why I would run in what they perceive as a lost cause," Scott said. "I was taught, and our party believes, that it is important to stand up for what you believe in. I would ask them why (should we) go with the drift of things and abandon the legacy of public service and policies of which our party is justifiably proud? I do not take this responsibility lightly and I know what lies ahead is all but overwhelming. I do not have all the answers, but I will learn and I will listen. I will respect the views of the constituents of this riding and represent you in our nation's capital. Join me as we decide to move forward to build on the traditions of our party and capitalize on our potential to fulfil Canada's greatness."

Merger Update #3

Building a better bank for you.

To our valued customers:

I want to bring you up to date on our progress in building a better bank by integrating the retail operations of TD Bank and Canada Trust.

Since our integration was first announced in February, you've had an opportunity to experience first-hand that it's business as usual at your branch, through our telephone banking service and on the web. If anything, our customers are telling us that service has improved. But this isn't surprising considering we've extended the hours of operation in many TD Bank branches across the country. We've also frozen our service fees for all TD Bank and Canada Trust customers until at least next January; and our combined 3,000 ABMs are now accessible to all our customers with no Interac withdrawal fees whatsoever.

Obviously, now as in the past, you can continue to use the TD Bank or Canada Trust branch you bank at now, and be looked after by the same people you're used to dealing with today. Or you can call on our existing telephone and web banking services to experience the same "best in class" service that may well have made you our customer in the first place. As I said, it's business as usual.

Looking To The Future

The process of consolidating our branches, telephone and web banking services is a complex one that thousands of our employees are working on, so that when the merger is completed by the end of next summer, the transition will be as seamless and painless as possible, and the result will be better banking for all our customers.

That said, our coming together will not be pain-free. Some of our branches will have to be consolidated, as will some of our products, in order to streamline our operations and simplify your banking experience. The product consolidation will take place in a series of four waves beginning in March of 2001 in the Atlantic Provinces. It will be completed on the weekends of March 24 in Atlantic Canada, May 19 in Alberta and British Columbia, June 23 in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Quebec. Consolidation in northwestern Ontario will also be completed on June 23, and in the remainder of Ontario on the weekend of August 4. The branch consolidation will be completed over the next 36 months in order to ensure the minimum disruption in service.

Our Commitment To You

Inevitably, there will be bumps along the way. We will make mistakes. But we will move to correct them quickly, completely – and cheerfully. We will also let you know well in advance of any changes that could affect you. If your branch location is going to move, we'll let you know – in writing – in clear language – at least four months beforehand. You can also rest assured that we will not change the quality of your banking and our commitment to customer service – except to work constantly on improving them both.

Merger Benefits For You

All Canada Trust branches now offer 'paperless banking', and by the Fall of 2001, all our retail TD Canada Trust branches will as well. This means that deposit and withdrawal slips will be a thing of the past. We also recently combined the management of our small business sales teams at both TD Bank and Canada Trust. As a result, the nation's burgeoning small business sector will enjoy a new level of service and a new kind of attitude from their bankers.

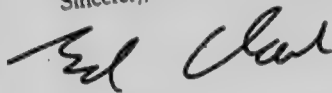

In October, our two mutual fund arms – TD Asset Management Inc. and CT Investment Management Group Inc. – are integrating their operations. This will give our customers access to what will be one of the largest and most diversified fund families in Canada.

Investing In Our Common Future

No matter what stage we're at with our integration, we will always continue to give back to the communities we serve – in every province and territory of Canada. This is why we are expanding the largest single cause that Canada Trust supports through its charitable contributions program – the Friends of the Environment Foundation which funds projects to preserve the health of our environment. Next year, following the conversion of TD Bank and Canada Trust retail operations into TD Canada Trust, all our customers will be able to support the Friends of the Environment Foundation.

Let me close by repeating that we will do our utmost to keep you up to date on developments as our two organizations become one. You can access our regular reports on the web, or pick one up in any of our branches. In addition, I will continue to report to you personally via updates such as this in Canada's newspapers. If you have any questions, or if you feel we are not meeting your expectations, I urge you to call our TD Canada Trust Customer Information Line at 1-888-572-8924.

Sincerely,

Ed Clark
TD Canada Trust

Residents move into Haliburton LTC facility

The residents have started to move into the 30 long-term care beds at the Haliburton Hospital.

The first residents were welcomed October 23. According to Melissa O'Mara, who has been supervising the arrival of the residents, three moved in on Monday and Tuesday of last week, with four arriving on Thursday and another three on Friday. The admissions are staggered over several weeks to allow staff and residents to become acclimatized to the new surroundings.

Audrey Elstone was the first to move in Monday morning. A native of Minden, she has lived in the Haliburton area since 1969. She was finding that living at her own home was becoming more difficult. She was experiencing memory lapses that concerned the members of her family and so agreed to move into the long-term care facility when it opened.

So far she has found the accommodations to her liking. "The food is good and staff are very helpful," she said. She also likes her bright room with the window overlooking the school yard at the back of the building.

Melinda O'Mara said the integration of the new residents was going well. "The residents are settling in well. This first group, in particular, is enjoying the extra attention the staff are able to provide right now." It could take until next week before all 30 beds in the facility are occupied.

ABOVE: Audrey Elstone was the first resident to move into the new Long Term Care facility in Haliburton last Monday.

LEFT: Supervisor Melinda O'Mara meets with Angela Brannigan RPN, and Tracy Parish RN at the nursing station of the LTC facility.

The Pat Dunn election campaign received a big boost last Monday when Alliance Party leader Stockwell Day visited Lindsay. It was one of the first campaign stops for the new leader after Prime Minister Jean Chretien called the election the day before. Some 600 supporters were on hand at LCVI to greet the national politician.

Ambulance service update

Ambulance Service Manager Bob English updated County Council on the Ambulance Service certification process. "We had to submit a business plan to the ministry," he said.

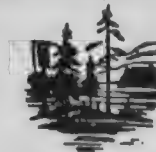

The ambulance service had to tell the Ministry of Health how it operated its services in minute detail. "Along with that, we had to create a policy procedure manual," said English.

The Ministry reviewed the plan for three to four weeks. "We met here on October 4 and went through the submitted business plan," said English. A letter then arrived from the Director of Emergency Health Services stating that the Land Ambulance Services could begin operation. "The next step in the process is six months down the road when we will have to go through a full-service review to make sure our operations meet the regulations," said English, concluding that they have already dealt with 90 per cent of the administration issues. "The last week or two, I've begun to deal with the operational side of things," he said. "It's one week today that we take over - November 1."

Remembering Paul

The Minden Food Bank has $1000 more to help meet its needs thanks to a dart and euchre tournament held recently at the Dominion Hotel. The competition and fun day was organized in honour of Paul Kirby who passed away earlier this year. Community businesses donated prizes while the hotel provided the buffet lunch. Patrons paid $10 to participate. The proceeds of the memorial were presented by organizer Trudy Penick, centre, and Dominion Hotel owner Liz Soltermann, right, to Minden Food bank co-ordinators Jim Hicks, Barbara Walford-Davis and Mary Hicks, second from right. The drawing of Paul Kirby on the right was completed by John Marren.

Eye-glass collection to take place October 31

Leos want to help others to see this Hallowe'en

This year, Minden residents can give more than goodies on trick-or-treat night, they can give the Gift of Sight.

October 31, is Sight Night. This is a program in which members of the Minden Leo Club will collect used glasses as they trick-or-treat. The glasses will be cleaned and repaired, if necessary, classified by prescription and hand delivered to people in developing countries who desperately need glasses, but cannot afford them.

"Sight Night is a new twist on trick or treating, combining fun with community service," said Leo President Matt Moore. Sight Night is part of the Give the Gift of Sight program, a co-operative endeavor between Lens Crafters Foundation and Lions Clubs International. Each year, Give the Gift of Sight sponsors optical missions to developing countries such as Tunisia, Mexico, Bolivia, Morocco, Laos and the Phillipines. To date, over 1.5 million people have been helped.

This year, the Minden Leos chose this project as one of their service activities and they ask for the community's support. Simply have your old glasses ready at your door. All colors, shapes and sizes of eye and sunglasses are needed - prescription and non-prescription. No matter how old or out of fashion your old specs are, they will make a world of difference to someone in a developing country.

Leos can be identified by the "Jeepers Creepers Sight Night" button they will be wearing, while canvassing. Should they not be able to get to your home, please drop off your used eyeglasses at the Head Office of Westside Jug City in Minden through to November 10.

Lions Clubs International, a partner with Lens Crafters since 1988, is the world's largest service organization with over 1.4 million members in more than 44,500 clubs in 185 countries. The Minden Lions Club has collected over 10,000 pairs of used eyeglasses through its collection boxes in the area during the past 12 years, while Lions worldwide have been collecting and recycling glasses for more than 70 years.

The club members were out October 21 on their annual litter clean-up patrol. The team scoured the shoulders of the roadway for litter and other debris. Helping with the clean-up were from the left, back row Gord Graham, Bob and Carole Walli and their daughter Jennifer, John Kerr. In the front row are Douglas and Michael Walli with their family dog Shadow, who was there to help.

Search and Rescue team opens new HQ

--submitted--

Haliburton County Search and Rescue celebrated an exciting milestone in its history on Saturday, October 7, with the official opening of a new headquarters on Pine Street, behind Emmerson Lumber in Haliburton.

Actually, it was a double milestone, as the team is also celebrating its tenth anniversary. On hand for the ribbon cutting were Constable Mark Davis, OPP Minden detachment, and Dysart Reeve Murray Fearrey, a constant source of encouragement and support for the team. Another important visitor was Sergeant Don Webster, head of the Central Ontario Emergency Response Team.

During the three-hour open-house, visitors were invited to sign a guest book. Delicious refreshments were provided by Haliburton subway and Eagle Lake Food Town, and coffee urns and extra seating were donated by Haliburton Rent-All. To these businesses, we owe special thanks for their on-going support.

Three ten-year members, Jim Chatterton, Kathy Chatterton and Gloria Foster, were honoured with special plaques.

Haliburton County Search and Rescue (HALSAR) is a non-profit, charitable organization geared to the successful land search and recovery of lost persons, and is a recognized member of the National Search and Rescue Secretariat. Searches are initiated by a call-out "page" from the OPP Emergency Response Team, and the team is then activated by Jim Chatterton, President and Search Co-ordinator. Jim is also a Central Ontario Director for another two-year term. The team consists of approximately 30 members, 24 of whom are certified by the OPP.

Each year, students from the Eco-Tourism and Adventure-Tourism courses at Sir Sandford Fleming College join the team, and participate in all activities. Their help is invaluable.

Searches have ranged as far afield as Algonquin Park, Oshawa, Marmora and Midland. Throughout its history, HALSAR has attended over 40 searches and participated in over 50 public-related events such as first aid, local events and conferences.

Kirk Cooper has just returned from the national SarScene Conference in Laval, P.Q., where he completed Search Master and Night Search courses, as well as many instructive workshops/lectures. HALSAR also teaches the Hug-a-Tree program periodically in the local schools. This program offers advice to children on what to do if they become lost in the bush. The team is always happy to welcome new members.

Funding comes entirely from the team's own fund-raising events and from solicited donations and local businesses, the municipality and service organisations such as the Legions and Legion Ladies' Auxiliaries, Lions clubs, Rotary clubs and the Eagle Lake Ladies Society.

The team has started to actively solicit sponsorship from local businesses, each being asked to sponsor the team for one month in the amount of $400, which is the average monthly operating budget. The sponsors so far include Haliburton Subway, Haliburton Lumber, Vista Signs and the team members themselves. Sponsors names and logos appear on a highly visible sponsor board and in the local newspapers. Any interested group or business is invited to contact Jim Chatterton at 754-2127 or Kirk Cooper at 447-2244.

An account of the 23 day World War Two victory of Allied forces over the Japanese at Papua, New Guinea, has been presented to the Minden Library. Written by Carnarvon resident, Major (ret) Charles R. Linderman, the 212 page book was compiled over 36 months of research. Entitled The Sanananda Trail, a copy of the book was presented to Dianne Graham of the Agnes Jamieson Gallery, County Town Museum and Library by the author last Tuesday.

Health Unit collecting books for pre-school children

Providing reading opportunities for young children is the goal behind a used preschool book drive being organised by the Haliburton, Kawartha, Pine Ridge District Health Unit.

For the month of November, Health Unit offices in Port Hope, Lindsay, Haliburton, Campbellford and Brighton will be accepting donations of books in good condition, aimed at the preschool level. Collected books will then be distributed to families by Health Unit staff who provide home visits to new mothers and at workshops for parents of children with speech and language delays.

"We are hoping that area families have done some cleaning this summer and are looking for ways to recycle books their children may have outgrown," says Julie Ann West, the Health Unit's Speech-Language Pathologist. "It would be a shame if good, used books were just sitting in someone's closet when they could be used to stimulate the cognitive and communication skills of a young child." A similar book drive held last summer collected more than 1,000 books, says West, and enabled the Health Unit to provide many parents with the tools needed to encourage them to read to their children.

"It's never too early to start sharing books with babies and young children," says West. "It is one of the key activities that parents can do to promote a child's healthy development of speech and language skills. Research has shown that these early experiences of reading and speaking with babies shapes the way they learn, think and behave for the rest of their lives."

Donations of used preschool books will be gratefully accepted at any of the Health Unit's offices weekdays in November between 8:30 am to 4:30 p.m. To learn more about the used book drive or how reading can help a child's development, parents can contact Julie Ann West, Speech-Language Pathologist, at the Health Unit's Port Hope office, (905) 885-9100, ext.233

by Jennifer Minto - Student Intern

Residents of Haliburton County are being invited to share Christmas with children around the world. Through a program called Operation Christmas Child, thousands of church congregations, school classes, and members of organizations around the world participate in collecting shoe boxes filled with goodies for those less fortunate in third world countries.

"The entire project has just snowballed," says local supporter and organizer Lorna Hicks. "It's great to see how much people really care and wish to help, as well as the fun they have making the boxes."

But these are not just any old boxes. These are boxes filled with a variety of gifts such as toys, school supplies, hygiene items, hard candy, clothing, flashlights with batteries or other kinds of goodies. The local contributors purchase the items to be included in the boxes.

Hicks collects things all year and then, when the time comes to send them, she only has to fill the boxes. This year she has five boxes ready to go.

With the help of the Jay Lake Trailer Park, the Catholic Church, and St. Paul's Church in Minden Hicks helps to organize the program for those in the community who wish to participate. Last year, they were able to send 140-150 boxes.

Operation Christmas Child began in 1993 and it wasn't long until it began to grow around the world. Now collected across Canada, the United States, Europe and Australia, the boxes are distributed to children in more than 55 countries throughout Latin America, Eastern Europe, Africa, Asia, and the Middle East.

Operation Christmas Child is a part of the year-round initiative of Samaritan's Purse to provide the basic needs of clean water, food, clothing, and medical aid to needy people all over the world. Helping people since 1970, Samaritan's Purse is an international Christian relief organization headed by Franklin Graham, son of evangelist Dr. Billy Graham.

In its first year Operation Christmas Child distributed 28,800 boxes. Last year, over 3 million boxes were collected. In Canada last year, the number sent was just shy of 500,000.

Boxes are gathered in three regional centres where they are then dispatched to overseas countries where they are distributed to the recipients. Those filling the boxes are asked to select one of three age groups of children, either a boy or girl: 2-4; 5-9; or 10-14 years of age.

"The exception with the contents of the boxes is that no war related items be included," says Hicks. "Most third world countries have been in that situation and do not want to be reminded of those times."

The only cost, over and above the contents of the box, is a $5 donation to assist in the processing of the boxes. Giving this Christmas to those less fortunate than yourself could possibly be the best gift that you could ever give.

Boxes must be returned before November 12 to either St. Paul's Anglican Church in Minden or St. George's in Haliburton. Anyone interested in filling a box, or more than one, can contact Lorna Hicks at 286-1658.

Choirs' combined effort delights audiences

Those who love Choral music enjoyed a double treat October 15 and 16 at the Performing Arts Pavilion in Haliburton.

The Haliburton Messiah Choir presented a concert of Canadian music and was joined on the stage by the 60 voice Achill Choral Society, under the direction of Dale Wood, from the Orangeville area. The visitors arrived in the area Saturday and were able to enjoy a fine autumn day before taking to the stage Saturday evening. A second concert was held Sunday afternoon.

The first half of the all Canadian Concert featured the two choirs in individual performances. The Haliburton group sang She's Like a Swallow, Song for Mira, which featured David Mills, Pussy Willows, Cattails and Take Me to the Isle, with a solo by Judith Auger.

The visitors took to the stage. They sang Alouette, The Drinking Gourd, Away from the Roll of the Sea, Farewell to Nova Scotia and This Land is Your Land.

In the second half, the over 100 singers from the two groups crowded onto the stage for an impressive presentation. The combined choirs opened with the rousing Something to Sing About. This was followed by Hymn to Freedom, They Call it Canada, We Rise Again, Un Canadien Errant and finally A Song for

Sharing the accolades

Conductors Melissa Stephens and Dale Wood accept the applause of the audience and their choirs following a concert Sunday afternoon, October 15.

Canada. Directors Melissa Stephens and Dale Wood shared the conducting for the second half of the concert.

The audience gave the performance a hearty standing ovation and the choirs responded with the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah.

This concert was an "extra" in the Messiah Choir's usual schedule. Rehearsals are already under way for its annual Christmas presentation. Entitled Simply Christmas, the program will include a selection of carols and secular music of the season. The concert is scheduled for December 8 and 9 at the Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion.

Warden's reportVictoria County budget in surplus

The following summary of Victoria County Council meeting was prepared by Warden John Macklem:

Auditor's report

The year 1999 was a successful one for Victoria County. It finished the year in a surplus position in both its regular operations and its capital operations.

The 1999 surplus amounts were applied within the year 2000 County of Victoria budget, and in part the 1999 surplus helped the County to keep the 2000 general tax rate unchanged from 1999.

The 1999 audited financial statements are on file at the County Administrative Building, and are available for public review, if desired.

Development activities

County Council heard from three delegations pertaining to the proposed commercial and residential development in Fenelon Township abutting the Village of Fenelon Falls. Following considerable discussion, County Council requested the applicant, Mr. Jim Wright, complete further studies, an engineering feasibility study, retail impact study, and traffic study.

For the period August 24 to September 13, the Development Department responded to the following requests or inquiries:

- 37 inquiries for information or advice from 27 existing or would-be businesses (15 businesses are located within the County and 12 businesses are located outside).

- 71 planning advisory inquiries. Approximately 94% of the consents and 80% of other development inquiries were from county residents,

Trans Canada Trail Relay 2000

To mark the official opening of the Trans Canada Trail, the Trans Canada Trail Relay 2000 transported water from the three oceans bordering Canada to the National Capital Region for a ceremony commemorating the Trans Canada Trail. The relay began in February and ended on September 9. Participants came from the Arctic Ocean, Tuktoyaktuk, Northwest Territories; the Pacific Ocean, Victoria, British Columbia; and the Atlantic Ocean, St. John's, Newfoundland; touching communities along the Trans Canada Trail, as they wound their way across the country. The locally selected carriers travelled on foot, by bicycle, on horseback, by cross-country skiing or by snowmobile, as appropriate, emphasizing physical activity, recreational enjoyment and improved quality of life.

The Trans Canada Trail Relay 2000 came through Victoria County on August 28 and 29. The Lindsay Parks and Recreation Department, Lindsay Special Events Office, County of Victoria Tourism Office and the community organizations in Little Britain and Omemee joined forces to making the Relay 2000 one of the biggest and most successful events of our Millennium summer. Commemorative train whistles were sold as a fund-raiser for the benefit of local communities who participated and the Trans Canada Trail Foundation.

Plans are in progress to establish a 'Trails Celebration 2001' on the last weekend in August 2001. Communities across the County are being invited to become involved, in order to create an event that will celebrate our great network of trails and bring the communities together in celebration.

Supply teachers sign contract

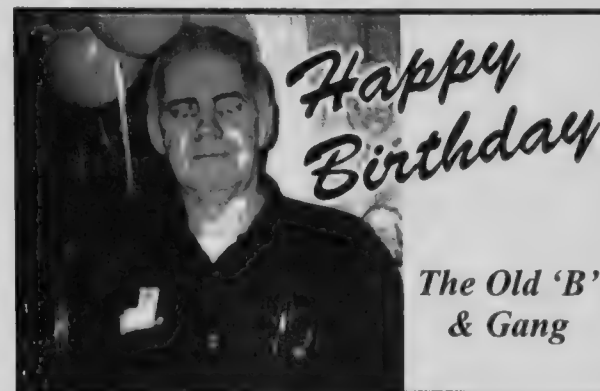

--Press release--

The Trillium Lakelands District School Board and the Elementary Occasional Teachers' Local of the Elementary Teachers' Federation of Ontario are pleased to announce the ratification last week of a new collective agreement. The agreement covers about 250 short-term and long-term supply teachers who will work in the board's elementary schools.

The new agreement harmonizes employment conditions from the three former predecessor boards, and provides for a daily supply rate of $145.50, retroactive to September 1, 2000. The rate increases to $148.30 effective September 1, 2001, and $150.00 effective January 1, 2002. The new agreement lasts until December 31, 2002.

"These negotiations were conducted in a very amicable and professional manner," commented Judy Saunders, board chair. "I'm also very pleased that six out of seven of our unionized employee groups have achieved new collective agreements since amalgamation."

Occasional Teacher president Jennifer Richter deWeerd is pleased with the outcome. "We took some time to reach this settlement; what the parties have accomplished gives members confidence in the Federation and the Board".

Something old, something new and something red

An outdoor dance party held in September to raise funds for 'the past, the present and the future' generated more than $2,500 for three local organizations. The "Action Packed Weekend" was hosted by the Stanhope Fire Department and included, on Saturday, an outdoor dance with a live band, a corn roast, and beef on a bun, followed by the county Firefighters Games on the Sunday. Funds were raised for the Hawk Lake Log Chute Restoration Project (the past), the Stanhope Fire Department (the present) and Yes, We Will Build a Pool in Haliburton County (the future). Above, event organizer Garth Mole holds cheques for, from left, Ben Thomas for Stanhope Fire Department, Carol Moffatt for the Hawk Lake Log Chute and Dawn Mole and Michelle Moore for the pool project. Each project received $875. Absent from the photo are co-organizers Dave Cober and Doug Ray.

St. Anthony ladies host tea

Hello everyone. It's almost the end of another month and time continues to gallop for us. It seems we just sat down and discussed the news and then we turn around and it is time to chat once again with you. Guess we better get on with it before another week passes us by.

We had a lovely tea last Thursday, October 19. The ladies from St. Anthony's in Haliburton were our hosts and what charming hosts they were. We send our thanks to them. Earlier that day Lola Prentice enjoyed a lovely hot luncheon here with some family visitors who travelled from Ottawa to visit with her. Lola reported that it was a lovely lunch and she says thanks to the dietary staff. The following afternoon Burrut Bonnell entertained us at our Happy Hour. His music delighted us as usual and we appreciated him being with us. Thanks Burrut.

Over the weekend we enjoyed a good game of bingo. Megan, a lovely young lady, was here to assist us. Megan is the granddaughter of Corinne Arsenault and she is a delight to be with. The Hillbillies were with us on Sunday to provide some entertainment. Needless to say we had an enjoyable afternoon with their company. Our thanks to them.

Our monthly Residents' Council meeting took place on Monday. It was a good meeting and well attended. We don't have anything to report on our card players this week. We must remind them to leave out some details.

Barbara Trocewicz joined us at our Tuesday morning Chapel Service. A memorial was held for Lucille Clarke and many residents attended to pay their respects. Other residents participated in Prayer Friends. That afternoon the craft group gathered to put the finishing touches on the Halloween projects. From now on we're sure they will be working on items for Christmas.

Marjorie Watt had some special visitors recently. Her oldest daughter, accompanied by her husband, all the way from Edmonton, Alberta. They were joined by Marjorie's other daughter and two sons and just to top it all off most of them were able to join Marjorie for supper Wednesday evening. It is so nice to see family visiting as it brings fond memories to mind.

The gang was all here for our weekly Pub Night, the two Don's, Leisa, Audrey and Lloyd. Now you know why we referred to them as "The Gang". Along with them were Don's wife Doris and his sister, Charlie Hadley joined in and we had a good ole hoe down. With Harold Osborne dancing with Linda and Roy Nicholls dancing with Doris and Edna McElwain accompanying on the spoons, all had a great time. We must also remember our volunteers: so thanks to all for a wonderful evening.

Just a few announcements before we sign off.

Birthday greetings to Mary Appleby who will be celebrating her birthday on November 1. Enjoy that special day Mary!

Recently our activity staff attended the Activities Professionals of Ontario Convention. They wish to thank the volunteers who made sure the program went on in their absence. Much appreciated.

We were saddened to hear that Ada Higginbottom died today, October 26. Ada was in her 93rd year. Our condolences to her family and friends.

Almost time for the kiddies to visit us once again in their Halloween costumes. We always look forward to this and we will be kept busy getting goodie bags ready. Hope to see many of them here.

Hope everyone has a good week, we will talk with you again.

*Something for you to think about:
Once upon a time I planned to be An artist of celebrity.*

*A song I thought to write one day,
And all the world would homage pay.*

I longed to write a noted book,

But what I did was - learn to cook.

For life with simple tasks is filled,

And I have done, not what I willed.

Yet when I see boys' hungry eyes,

I'm glad I make good apple pies!

Around the County Town

by Nora Snyder (call 286-4450; email <mindenhouse@on.aibn.com>)

The good weather keeps coming. I have sat on my screened porch with a book or just gazing at my surroundings more than I have all summer. This 'closed for the season' feels so good. I needed a break!!

I had a wonderful Sunday last week attending 'Haliburton Women's Wellness Day'. Many of us were there and we experienced so much in our quest to take better care of ourselves. I hadn't been with such a group of empowered individuals for a long time and I enjoyed every minute. It was like being on the Oprah show!!! There was a speaker talking about health and choice, another about herbs and their benefit to our health and our own Rosie Cadwell, the nutritionist, demonstrating tasty recipes.

"Women Outloud", a local musical group of women who get together to sing and get their voices out there. I was told that every woman is welcome to join them, regardless of their singing ability!! They put on a stirring show!! I brought home a stackful of material containing helpful information. More events like that would be great. It was held at Wigamog Inn and they served us a wonderful lunch in lovely surroundings. Great day!!

That was a cute story in the column last week about Mary Colman's musical card which was supposed to go to her brother, Lou Penick on his 88th birthday. The story was news to me too as our editor had snuck the item into my column, as he felt it fit there!!! I agree, but then Mary called me to complain (complain is too strong a word), that I had made some mistakes in the story. Jack was caught out!! The Happy Birthday tune was still playing at the time of the call and Mary has promised to keep me and you up to date as to how long it keeps going!!

Final call for the annual Turkey Dinner at St. Paul's Anglican Church on Friday, November 3. Sittings are at 5 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. Adult tickets are $10; 12 and under $5; and preschoolers free. Tickets are at Campbell's Florists or call 286-2541.

A monthly notice:

The Minden and District Horticultural Society invites the public to its Christmas meeting at 7:15 p.m. on November 7 at the Community Centre. Anne Neave of Campbell's Garden Centre will demonstrate "Decorating with Fresh Greens". Bring along Christmas goodies for the lunch table. They will be having a mini bake sale so bring some extra 'dough' (the cash kind). This is the last meeting of the season. Hope to see everyone out.

Another monthly notice:

Haliburton Highlands Genealogy holds its next meeting on Wednesday, November 8 in the Minden Public Library. Business and chat at 6 p.m. and at 7:00 p.m., "Bring an Ancestor". Time once again for our most popular evening of the year, when the atmosphere is even more relaxed than usual. Just bring a piece of memorabilia, an object from bygone days, a photograph or story you have uncovered, a challenge that has interested or inspired you. Share your family's achievements and disappointments, but remember we like to laugh so the odd wart or two would be appreciated. Coffee, cookies and "Bring and Win"!!

Again this year Minden Legion Branch 636 will be celebrating Remembrance Day with a parade to the County Cairn on Saturday, November 11. We will again be accompanied by our local Scouts, Guides and Brownies. We will march to the music of the Haliburton Highlands Silver Flute Band.

A Service of Remembrance under the direction of Legion Padre Merv Everall will take place and tributes will be placed by individuals and groups to honour the many who paid the Supreme Sacrifice for our freedom.

The Legion is again asking our community to join with us in the two minute Wave of Silence as it rolls across Canada from the east to the west coast through six time zones at 11:00 a.m. Those wishing to come to the Cairn or march with us are most welcome. Afterwards we will all meet at Branch 636 for a reception and comradeship.

Hallowe'en approaches. A fun time for the kids. I have never seen so many decorations upon the homes around the county. They make it look like it is becoming even more of an event. Have a safe fun time!!

And then we head into November with just as much warmth and sunshine I hope!!!

CARDS OF THANKS

REGIER

The family of the late Lloyd Regier wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbours. A special thank you to the Minden Ambulance and Stanhope Township Fire Department for their speedy response to my call; to Doctors Lingertat and Kathy Griffin at Minden Hospital for their comfort and caring at this most sorrowful time; to Jim Howe for taking the time to bring Lloyd's backhoe home. To Brad and Anne Archer, Doug Wall, Paul and Beryl Rutledge, Pearl Taverner and Lorne McAleer for doing so many tasks. I couldn't begin to mention all of them. A big thank you to all who took the time out of their busy lives to travel all the way to Exeter for Lloyd's Funeral and to everyone for the beautiful floral arrangements, cards, phone calls and donations to charities. Although we have only lived here a little more than a year, I am overwhelmed at the outpouring of caring and kindness shown me.
Lloyd will be missed by anyone who ever had the pleasure of meeting and knowing him. Your thoughtfulness will remain in our hearts forever.
Sincerely,
Donna Regier & Family.

CARDS OF THANKS

The Family of the late Elvean McKelvey would like to express their sincere gratitude to the following: Both teams of Ambulance Attendants who transferred Mother to Minden Hospital then to the Haliburton Hospital.
Thank you to Dr. Dave Fiddler and nursing staff at Minden Hospital for their professionalism and caring words.
We would like to thank the nursing staff in both the Emergency and Acute Care at the Haliburton Hospital for their diligence and understanding. Thank you to Dr.
Ferracuti and Dr. Holowachuk for the care and compassion they displayed in Mother's treatment and the kind words and understanding expressed to us.
To Dr. Conway, thank you for Mother's care over the years and your honesty during our consultation at the Hospital.

A very special thanks to nurses
Kim Gordon and Terri Fearrey who were with us in Mother's final moments, your hugs and words of support will never be forgotten.

We cannot begin, for words are not enough, to say thank you to all of our friends and relatives, every one who phoned, sent cards, food, flowers and made donations. Please accept from the bottom of our hearts, a special thank you to each and every one of you.

To Joyce Smith, your kind words in the eulogy will always be remembered - thank you.

Thank you to Autumn and Lois

the lovely reception after the funeral. Also thanks to the United Church for the use of the basement for the reception. Special thanks to Rev. Peter Walford-Davis for your comforting words and prayers.

We also want to thank Barry, Kirsten, Gord and their staff at the Gordon A. Monk Funeral derstanding also for doing everything in, what we believe would have been to Mother's liking.

CARDS OF THANKS

I would like to thank all those who came to my aid on Thursday, October 12 on County Rd. #1. Although I didn't get many of your names, your kind acts really mattered to me. Thanks to Mr. Brohm for your help and kind words, Mrs. Halas-Moulton for your first aid and hugs, Tom and Sandra Simmons for directing traffic and collecting my things, the unknown man with the cell phone who now has less than 23 minutes left, the unknown men who helped me through the window to freedom, Mrs. Vick for her calls for help, all who stopped to ask if more help was needed, the ambulance the O.P.P. It is a great area we live in where many people willingly give of their time to help others. Many thanks for the calls, flowers and kind words. Special thanks to Bill Houghton who made sure I had a ride and my family who have rubbed me with liniment and hugged me when the nightmares were bad. Above all I would like to thank the little angel who must have been sitting on my shoulder protecting me. To be only a little bruised and sore when things could have been so much worse, must have been because of you.

Bless you all,
Sandy Cole.

CARDS OF THANKS

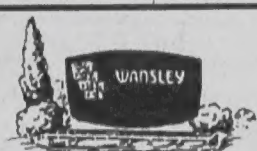

The family of the late Dorothy Jane McKnight extend their sincere thanks to everyone for their expressions of sympathy. Special thanks to Dr. Ferracuti and to the Haliburton and Lindsay Hospitals for all their caring and effort. Thanks also to the Monk Funeral Home for their efficiency and consideration.
Kenneth McKnight.
